

NOT CONFIRMED ARE THE RUMORS OF PORT ARTHUR

The Japs Reinforced May Now Advance.

Muscovites Expect an Attack South of Mukden—Continuous Skirmishing
in Far East.

London, Nov. 12.—The rumors of yesterday that Port Arthur had fallen are not confirmed.

Mukden, Nov. 12.—The positions of the armies on both sides remain little changed, though there is continual skirmishing going on with the object of securing minor positions tending to strengthen the respective lines of defense. The Russian scouts are very careful in secretly reconnoitering the whole of the Japanese lines, some even creeping up to the Japanese trenches and lying concealed there all day, and returning at night. The Japanese have constructed in many places double and even triple and quadruple lines of trenches, wire entanglements, mines and pits.

Our right center engaged the Japs
in a heavy artillery engagement. Russian volunteers dislodged a detachment of Japanese infantry from trenches in front of Lone Tree hill.
During the bombardment the Russians threw 60 large melinite shells into the Japanese camp opposite Man-an hill. The enemy did not reply.
Comfortable dugouts are being built along the Russian lines, and the soldiers seem to think they will winter
where they are. The idea that Field Marshal Oyama contemplates an attempt to take Mukden is not generally conceded.

In the extreme east the Japanese appear not to have advanced north of Saimachi, and to have concentrated their forces in their center. The prevailing conviction is that the reinforcements received by the Japanese have been much larger than reported,
and consequently it is expected they will attack.

France Has Approved.
Paris, Nov. 12.—It is understood that France has approved of the second Hague conference. The formal acceptance of President Roosevelt's invitation will shortly be announced.

Baltic Fleet Disabled.
Rome, Nov. 12.—A telegram from Crete states that a battleship, two cruisers and several torpedo boats of the Baltic fleet, have put in there for repairs. The work will probably delay the squadron's departure for the far East.

The telegram adds that the officers of the fleet state they have been informed that the Japanese have arranged to attack the fleet in the Red sea.

The Peace Talk.

London, Nov. 12.—The possibility of immediate peace in the far East which has been the gist of the reports current in all parts of the world lately,
especially in America, is not optimistically received in diplomatic circles.
It is considered unlikely that either belligerent is desirous of quitting the conflict. This is thought to be especially true in case of the Japanese,
who are naturally anxious to secure Port Arthur, the possession of which was one of the several causes of war,
before ending the fight, or even considering peace. It would cause a great surprise in official circles of the offers of mediation were accepted before the end of winter, when, it is expected, the relative gains and losses of each belligerent will have been clearly defined and a good basis for a peace settlement will be obtainable.
On the other hand, as one diplomat pointed out to your correspondent this morning, there is always the possibility of the unexpected happening. The diplomat said: "It is always possible that the world will awaken one morning to find hostilities have ceased, although there is no more reason to anticipate the end now than at any time in the past month."

YOUNG MAN

Arrested on Charges Made by Two Little Girls Died in the Jail
From Frigid.

New York, Nov. 12.—Frederick Ewe, a young tradesman who had a good reputation until arrested 10 days ago on charges made by two little girls,
died in a cell in the Jersey City jail.
It is believed his death was due to fright and constant worry as to what fate had in store for him. Ewe was one of 14 Hudson county men arrested on serious charges preferred by little girls, and his death adds another dramatic link to the cases which have stirred Hudson county. Already many reputations in Jersey City and Hoboken have been shattered and two of the accused have tried to commit suicide. Ewe protested innocence of the charges against him.

A man is not even divined who loves cash more than country.

It's a poor faith that does not answer some of its own prayers.

NINE KILLED

IN UNION PACIFIC WRECK IN WY-OMING TO-DAY.

Five Others Injured—Accident Due to
Is Alleged to Mistake of An Operator.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 12.—Early this morning a head-on collision near Granger, Wyo., on the Union Pacific, between a mail and freight train, resulted in the instant death of the engineer and fireman of both trains.
Nine persons were killed and five injured. The wreck occurred at Azuca, 179 miles east of Ogden, and was caused by the alleged mistake of an operator. Among the dead are:

William Murray, engineer.
Bert Sherman, mail clerk.
B. F. Eccles, engineer.
Sam Efferson, car inspector.

The missing—Head Brakeman Lohman, and the fireman of the freight. The baggage man and mail clerk will die.

GOLD MINE

Has Been Discovered in Japan and the Far Eastern War Will Go on Apace.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 12.—Mr. Kokichi Morimoto, of Japan, who is studying at the Johns Hopkins university, this city, has received a letter from his native land informing him that a gold mine has been discovered at Mutsu, in Northern Japan, which will enable the Japanese to continue the war. The worth of the mine is roughly estimated at $5,000,000,000.

A resident in the vicinity of Mutsu discovered the mine, and the Japanese government after being informed of it, kept the fact a secret until 30 days ago. Mr. Morimoto expresses great joy over the discovery and he is perfectly confident that his country can now successfully prosecute the war in the east to a successful finish.

GEN. WADE

Commander of the Philippine Division
Submits His Annual Report on Conditions.

Washington, Nov. 12.—General J.
F. Wade, commander of the Philippine division, in his annual report says cholera has disappeared from the islands. He says that while the troops in the islands have not been actively engaged, their presence there is necessary as an aid to the authorities.
Continuing, General Wade says: "The Filipino soldier, both scout and constabulary, has done and is doing good work, but it is the work of the trained soldier against the mob. He has been well armed, drilled and disciplined by American officers, and led by these officers against the undisciplined, unskilled and poorly armed outlaws of the provinces; men of his own race, but lacking his advantages and having nothing to gain and all to lose by fighting. The talk of the Filipino soldier has gone so far that many persons have evolved theories for a continental army to be composed in whole or in part of natives. In one respect too many of these schemes resemble the numerous projects for a Filipino republic, which provide, by name, for a dictator and a lieutenant general."

COL. ANTHONY

Noted Editor of Kansas and Brother of Susan B. Anthony—Dies at Age of 80.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 12.—Colonel Daniel R. Anthony, the noted editor of the Leavenworth Times and brother of Miss Susan B. Anthony, the woman suffragist, died at his home here of heart disease, aged 80 years.
Colonel Anthony, who gained his title in the Union army, was one of the last of a half-dozen editors who did much to spread the fame of Kansas in its early days. He was for nearly half a century editor and proprietor of the Leavenworth Times, and during that time did much to shape the destiny of his state. He was born at Adams, Mass., and spent his early years in New York. He was intimately acquainted with Thurlow Weed, Horace Greeley, Senator Seward and others in New York politics of that day.

Take Your Choice.

London Nov. 12.—A St. Petersburg telegram yesterday announced the sudden death of General Grippenberg. A Vilna, Russia, dispatch today says that he has not even been sick and that he will leave for the East Nov. 17.

THE TOTAL VOTE IN THIS STATE SHOWS A LOSS

Return Indicate Will be Less Than Million.

Count Shows Seven Per Cent Loss.
Echoes From the Election of Tuesday.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—Senator Dick, State Auditor Guilbert, Attorney General Ellis and State Treasurer McKinnon have gone to Cincinnati to confer with George B.
Cox. If, through Mr. Cox, or by the conference directly, it is found possible to effect an understanding with Senator Foraker, preparations for a general battle all over Ohio for control of the state organization may be abandoned.

At Republican headquarters the Roosevelt plurality in Ohio is reported to have reached 253,239. Of 13 counties which have reported their official vote to Secretary of State Laylin, the total vote was computed by the statisticians in 10. Of these 10 but one,
Marion, showed an increase over 1900.
The average decrease was approximately 7 per cent. If that per cent of loss is maintained the total vote will be under 1,000,000. Of the 71 counties carried by Roosevelt only 19 had plu-ralities of less than 1,000.

The growth of Socialism in the state is exemplified by the Debs vote in the four largest cities, nearly 19,000 votes
being cast in Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo and Cleveland. This is 2,000 more than Debs had in 1900 in the entire state.

Chairman Garbor and Secretary
Nichols closed Democratic state headquarters and left for Greenville and Wapakoneta, their respective homes.
Senator Dick and Mrs. Dick will visit the world's fair next week.

Opposed to Fusion.
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 12.—Several of the leading Democrats of Nebraska have placed themselves on record as opposed to further fusion in this state with the Populists. They include ex-Governor Boyd, former Attorney General C. J. Smyth, President Henry W.
Vates of the Nebraska National bank, Richard L. Metcalf, editor-in-chief of the Omaha World-Herald, and T. C.
Healy, treasurer of the Democratic state committee. Ex-Governor Boyd was unequivocal in his opinion, saying, "There is room for only two great parties in this country. Bryan and others have ruined the Democratic party in Nebraska."

Result in Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 12.—That an official count of the ballot cast for the presidential electors at last Tuesday's election in Maryland will be required before definite knowledge of the result can be assured has been demonstrated by the semi-official count in Baltimore city and in 20 of the 23 counties of the state. The returns received thus far indicate that seven Democratic and one Republican elector were chosen. The congressional situation remains unchanged, three Democratic and three Republican congressmen having been elected.

Parker's Movements.

New York, Nov. 12.—Judge Alton
B. Parker has returned to his home in Esopus. His purpose in coming to New York was to extend his personal thanks to William F. Sheehan and other friends who exerted themselves
in his behalf during the campaign.
Regarding his own plans he says he has come to no decision beyond his determination to devote himself to
law. "I came down to look things over," said Judge Parker, "but I haven't made up my mind as to the details. There's no hurry."

Tom Johnson on the Election.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 12.—"The result of the Republican landslide Tuesday, to my mind, clearly puts Bryan
at the head of the Democratic party," said Mayor Tom L. Johnson. "I expect to see the Nebraska statesman nominated for president in the convention of 1908, and it will be on a gold platform. Though an ardent silver man, Bryan will recognize that the party must espouse the cause of the gold standard to stand any show of success."

EXPLOSION

In a Paint Factory Attended by Dramatic Incidents—Two Are Dead and Twenty Injured.

Paris, Nov. 12.—A fire in which two men are known to have lost their lives, and which was attended by dramatic incidents, occurred in the Hip-polite enamel paint factory at Issy, near Paris. A terrific explosion wrecked the building, in which 25 men and an equal number of women were employed. Flames broke out instantly, and in a few minutes the factory was like a furnace. Barred windows resulted in many men rushing out with their clothes burning and jumped into the river Seine in order to extinguish the flames. About 10 men and the same number of women were severely burned.

LOU DILLON

TROTS A MILE UNPAID IN 2:01
FLAT.

Breaking the World's Unpaid Record.
A Great Feat on the Memphis
Race Track.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 12.—Lou Dillon trotted a mile at the driving park in 2:01, breaking the world's unpaid record. The mare was unaccompanied by a runner at the start. The time by quarters was: 0:30, 0:57, 1:20, 2:01.
The former unpaid mile trotting record was 2:01, held by both Lou Dillon and Major Delmar.

SUDDENLY SHE IS RESTORED TO HER RIGHT MIND

Woman in An Odd Way
Recovers Faculties.

Deranged Last April She Had Hemorrhage of Nose Today and Mind Became Clear.

Marion, O., Nov. 12.—After being insane seven months, Mrs. Daniel Huffman, aged 69, of Green Camp, recovered her mental faculties in a peculiar manner this morning. One night last April she became deranged, left her bed and wandered about all night in her night clothes. Since then she has been kept under constant surveillance at home. This morning she was taken with a severe hemorrhage of the nose, following which her mind became clear as a crystal. She has no knowledge of the events of the past seven months.

JOHN HAY

Will Remain in Roosevelt's Cabinet.
The President Makes This Statement.

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Roosevelt made the announcement that John Hay would continue as secretary of state during the four years beginning March 1 next. "You may positively state," were his words,
"that Mr. Hay will continue as secretary of state up to the 4th of March, 1909." The president was asked regarding other possible cabinet changes, but indicated that there was nothing to be said at present.

Watson's Promise.

New York, Nov. 12.—Thomas E.
Watson, who was the candidate of the People's party for president, arrived here from his home in Georgia. "I will issue a statement outlining my plans," said Mr. Watson. "In that statement I will give my views of the election and of what I propose to do.
I came here to meet the national and state leaders of my own party."

Missouri Complete.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 12.—Returns from all counties in the state, and most of these official, give Folk (Dem.) for governor 30,566 plurality and Roosevelt 23,721 plurality.

TODAY'S DEATHS

W. W. TOUVELLE.

Toledo, Nov. 12.—W. W. Touvelle,
American consul at Belfast, Ireland,
died this morning at his home in Wausaton. He was appointed consul by McKinley in 1897, and came home on a leave of absence last May. Mr. Touvelle was for many years prominent in Republican politics in this state. He was 56 years of age. The funeral will be held at Wausaton Tuesday afternoon
under the auspices of Toledo commandry Knights Templars.

Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock II, and other racing yachts, is dead.

A FAMOUS ARTIST.

London, Nov. 12.—(Bulletin)—Valentine Cameron Prinsep, the famous artist, author and playwright is dead.
Prinsep was born February 14, 1858.

DEMOCRATS

Concede the Election of Three Republican Congressmen in Colorado.
The Figures.

Denver, Nov. 12.—The Democrats
now concede the election of three Republican congressmen in Colorado. Revised returns show Franklin D. Brooks (Rep.) a majority of 2,976 over John F. Shafer (Dem.) for congressman-at-large and show 2,785 plurality for R. W. Boyington (Rep.) in the First district, and 6,694 plurality for H. M.
Hogg (Rep.) in the Second district.

NINE PEOPLE IN A SLEEPER ARE INJURED

A B. & O. Train Sidelined
Another This Morning

Cause of the Accident Is a Mystery
and the Case Is Being Investigated.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 12.—Nine people were injured in a sideswipe accident at Boyd's Station, near Washington Junction, early this morning. The injured are:

Pullman Conductor George Conrad;
may die, internal injuries, unconscious.
Mrs. Charles E. Carr, Cincinnati,
head cut.
E. J. Doran, San Francisco; head
cut.
W. H. Coulter, Philadelphia; shocked and bruised.
L. C. Young, New York City; bruised.

M. J. Harden, South Port, Conn.; cut on right leg.
Miss A. Janis, Philadelphia; head
cut and bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Palmer; both cut about body and greatly shocked.

All of the injured passengers, except Conductor Conrad, continued on their journey after being attended to by the company's doctors. The injured were all passengers on B. & O. train No.
3, a Washington express bound west.
They were putting into a siding at Boyd's and all of the passengers were quietly sleeping in the Pullman when
No. 12, east bound, for Washington, crashed into the sleeper. Des Moines, hurling it clear off the track down an embankment and derailing some of the other coaches. No. 12 suffered no injury.

The cause of the accident is a mystery and is being investigated. No. 3 is supposed to side track there to allow No. 12 to pass, and whether No.
3 was late or No. 12 ahead of time is not yet known.

Boiler Exploded.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 12.—A boiler attached to a threshing machine on the Samuel Kauffman farm exploded and killed William Bassett, 10, and John Bolehouse, 60, both of Elkhart. Guy Busman, 14, was badly injured, also Floyd Kauffman, 10, Charles Dills and Norman Shigley, the latter aged 60,
were also scalded, together with others
not reported.

Last of the "Six Hundred."

Denver, Colo., Nov. 12.—Alexander Sutherland, said to have been the last survivor of the famous Balaklava
"Six Hundred," is dead at his home in this city, where he has resided for 40 years. He was the trumpeter who sounded the bugle call for the memorable charge. Mr. Sutherland was 91 years of age, and died of pneumonia.

IMPRISONED

Were the Three Pastors by the Locking of a Door and the Firemen Released There.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 12.—Three prominent Baptist ministers, Dr. John N. Prestridge, editor of the Baptist Argus; Dr. J. H. Eager, of Baltimore, and Dr. George B. Dager of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary,
were made prisoners in the Baptist Argus office last evening by the locking of a door, and the fire department had to send a hook and ladder company to take them out through a second story window in order that Dr. J.
H. Eager might catch a train for Baltimore.

There was no time to lose, so the gallant firemen pulled the preachers
aboard the truck as they came down the ladder, and with the bell clangine drove them to the Seventh Street Depot, where Dr. Eager managed to catch the last car of the Baltimore &
Ohio train, which had just started.

SMOOT CASE

Committee Which Was to Have Gone to Utah Can Not Be Assembled at Present.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—A hitch has occurred in the Reed Smoot Mormon investigation, which was to have begun after the election by the special subcommittee of the committee on privileges and elections of the United States senate. The members of the subcommittee were to meet in Chicago this week and proceed to Utah, but the trip has been declared off. United States Senator Davis of Idaho, who is engaged on the day of the presentation, reached Chicago Thursday night. He received a message from Senator Burrows of Michigan, chairman of the special committee, informing him that it was impossible to get the members together. It is believed, therefore, that the plans for gathering testimony among the Mormons before the meeting of congress next month will be abandoned.

FIFTY HURT

AND FRONTS OF FIFTY STORES
ARE BLOWN OUT.

Loss From Explosion This Morning at Knoxville, Tenn., Amounts to $275,000.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—By the explosion of 200 pounds of dynamite and powder in a fire this morning that destroyed the hardware store of W.
W. Woodruff & Co., the fronts of 50 stores were blown out. Five firemen and 50 spectators were injured. The explosion was heard 15 miles. The city hall and market house are among the worst damaged. Every store had its stock damaged. The loss from this damage may reach $100,000. Woodruff's loss alone is $175,000.

SNOW IN TEXAS

FT. Worth, Texas, Nov. 12.—The first sprinkle of snow fell in north Texas last evening. There was a heavy frost last night in west Texas and two inches of snow fell.

LITTLE BOY

Repudiated Testimony That He Had Given Convicting His Own Father of Murder

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Apparently straightforward testimony from a boy convicting his own father of murder
had a remarkable sequel in the discharge of the alleged murderer, John Wiltrax. The boy when taken from the influence of the police repudiated
the testimony given in court, and stated that his accusations against his father were made under stress of fear.
The reversal of the boy's testimony was due largely to the intervention of Peter Van Vliening, a wealthy man, who became convinced that the case against the father was groundless.
Mr. Van Vliening personally took to his own home the Wiltrax boy, and gradually learned the truth from the boy's lips.

CHANGE

In Disposition Noted in a Man Injured
in a Wreck—Big Damages Awarded.

New York, Nov. 12.—What is said to have been the largest verdict ever awarded under similar conditions was returned in the supreme court when a jury awarded Mrs. Mary C. Ga Nun $25,000 for the loss of her husband, who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Grand Central tunnel on Jan. 8, 1902. Mr. Ga Nun was on his way from his home in Greenwich to this city when the train on which he was riding crashed into another. He was hurled from his seat, his head
striking an iron projection on the seat ahead. He did not appear badly injured at first, but experienced a remarkable change in disposition. From a jovial and congenial man he became morose, ill-tempered and depressed in spirits. About a year and a half after the accident Ga Nun became seriously ill and died four days later. Physicians testified that death was due to a rupture of the heart, indirectly due to the shock and injuries received in the collision.

AS A BANDIT

Harvard Boy Was Arrested After a Desperate Fight With the Police in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 12.—Edward Raymond, an ex-Harvard student, was arrested yesterday after a desperate struggle with the police.

Raymond, with an unidentified accomplice, held up the saloon of Louis Fenster at 1500 South Seventh street,
and at the point of a revolver robbed
all the patrons. Policemen entered the saloon just as the pair departed,
and bidding the crowd to follow, gave chase.

Raymond is 22 years old, and is the son of wealthy parents. He was born in the shadow of Harvard University and attended that institution until he became 21 years old. Lured by stories of fabulous riches he went to Colorado. Disappointed, he resolved to return home. He had no money and decided to walk. He reached St. Louis in a half-starved, dejected condition,
and began a criminal career.

Concurred.—The will of Archbishop Hiller was probated today. The estate amounts to $1,000. He leaves $200 for masses for the repose of his soul and for the repose of other poor souls in purgatory. This will be distributed among the priests of needy missions.

Altoma, Pa.—Today's search of the Haggerty barn ruins disclosed three more bodies. It is thought 10 or 12 men were cremated.

SENSATIONAL IS PEKIN REPORT FROM GAMMON

He Says Boxer Outbreak
is Inevitable.

This Man Predicted the Trouble in China Three Years Ago—
His Letter.

Beloit, Wis., Nov. 1.—Sensational in the extreme are the reports sent from Pekin by Charles F. Gammon, of the American Bible society, of another Boxer uprising in China. Mr. Gammon says that a second Boxer outbreak is inevitable and states in a letter to his father, E. W. Gammon, of this city, that Minister Conger has notified the Chinese that unless the movement is suppressed at once he will request
United States troops to be sent to Pekin.
Mr. Gammon's letter reads as follows:

"I find the situation in some parts of the north very unsatisfactory.
Dates have been set for the slaughter of all foreigners and the general symptoms resemble those of 1900.

"Several secret societies including the Boxers, united in one great society, the purpose of which we do not understand. The officials are helpless because many of their underlings are members, in fact, the officials are forced to obtain information from missionaries. The cause of the trouble I do not know wholly, but heavy taxation is one of them. This being laid at the door of the foreigners.

"Mr. Conger, however, is not to be foiled a second time, and he has written to the foreign office that unless the trouble is at once suppressed he will send for United States troops.
Doubtless this will stir the officials up a little. There will be a great deal of trouble in China. It is inevitable."

Mr. Gammon was shut up in Tien Tsin during the Boxer outrages of 1900, and Mrs. Gammon was one of the group of women over whom a detament of British sailors was placed, with orders to shoot them if the city fell into the hands of the Chinese. The American relief party came just in the nick of time. As head of the Bible society in China, Mr. Gammon is in a position to learn many secrets. He predicted the 1901 Boxer uprising.

NEWARK POSTOFFICE

Contest is Already on and There Are Several Candidates for the Place With More to Follow—A Merry Fight Sure to Result.

The Newark postoffice appointment is causing all kinds of comment among Republican politicians, and although the term of the present incumbent, Mr. J. M. Ickes, does not expire until June, 1906, a number of candidates are laying their lines to land the best specimen of fruit on the Licking county political plum tree.

Some of the candidates are avowed aspirants for the place while all of them are "receptive." The situation bids fair to develop into a scramble for preferment, in which old factional wounds will be reopened and the famous session of the Kilkenny cats will look like a peace conference in comparison.

The factor in the race seems to be Mr. M. L. Smyser, the accidental congressman-elect from the 17th district, and the candidates for postmaster are now busily engaged in attempting to prove that they were rampant supporters of the Wooster man before election and that had it not been for each one of them, he would have been defeated.

It is generally believed that any man who was against Smyser or whose support was lukewarm will be dumped when the Hon. M. L. comes into his office.

If this is true it would seem that the chances of J. M. Ickes are very slim. The present postmaster wishes it understood that he is not a candidate for another term, as he is now serving his third. But he also says that if the appointment comes he will accept it.

But how will Mr. Ickes square himself with Smyser? He is claimed to have told A. C. Dickinson, proprietor of The American-Tribune, that he would not vote for Smyser nor ask any of his friends to do so. Speaking of Mr. Dickinson it is to be remembered that he is one of the avowed candidates, and he said to an Advocate representative that he thought he was entitled to the position. He bases his claims on the fact that before the congressional convention he telegraphed to Smyser, pledging his paper's support if the judge would accept the nomination. He further argues that precedent is in his favor in the patronage handed out in this district as well as over Ohio. He cites McCoy, now postmaster at Coshocton; McElvaine, who will undoubtedly be appointed in New Philadelphia, and others who are editors of the Republican organs of the district.

But in Mr. Dickinson's candidacy is presented the spectacle of a house divided against itself, as his business manager, Mr. A. C. Hatch, is also an earnest aspirant. Mr. Hatch was a candidate the last time and said Saturday that that application was still in force and would be brought to the attention of the president.

Mr. T. O. Donovan, who has been mentioned for the place, grew factions when asked about his candidacy, and delivered himself about as follows:

"I can't see how I could get it unless I got a transfer over to the Democratic party, because I would need Ickes' endorsement and there is where he belongs."

Mr. Earl W. Murphy is making no scramble for the job, but his friends are booming him for the place, and he said that if the appointment came to him he would certainly accept it.

Mr. Murphy was chairman of the County Republican Executive committee during the recent campaign, and is popular.

Mr. George D. Heisey has also been mentioned for the position and the prominent work he did for Judge Smyser, would show him to be pretty strong with the Wayne county statesman.

The Columbus correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer having taken a look at Newark the day after election wrote this Friday night:

Over in Newark there is another man who since Tuesday night has been unable to give tongue to the unutterable thoughts that rise in his bosom, ascend to his brain and give him the headache. These thoughts, too, are all of himself. They are of the same general nature and involve his forethought. This tongue-tied man is Colonel Melville M. Gillett, formerly of Governor Nash's staff, and one of the Republican leaders in Licking county. Last summer he was asked to take the nomination for congress in the Seventeenth district.

Opening his cigar case to the committee, he winked and said: "My business interests forbid me considering your flattering offer. Very sorry, you know." When the committee filed out the Colonel said to himself: "Aha! I guess I am crippled in my thinking, eh?" When the returns came in Tuesday night showing that Judge Martin Luther Smyser, who took the nomination in order to see how his name looked in print, was elected, what Colonel Gillett said to himself is only known to the recording angel who mercifully put the book under the heavenly pump. Last Wednesday he told a man who came in, to pay his gas bill this: "I'm the luckiest man alive, I am. If it was raining turtle soup I'd be caught in the storm with only a fork."

From Wooster, the home of the man who took Gillett's job, comes the information that his first official act will be to demand the head of Postmaster Joseph M. Ickes of Newark.

It is charged that the postmaster willfully, maliciously and wickedly conspired to defeat Smyser in order that his own job might not be jeopardized. He is a member of the Hanna faction, and hoped to land, through Senator Dick and Governor Herrick. Now Smyser will have the say, and Ickes seems destined for the political dump.

Earl W. Murphy, Timothy O. Donovan and Addison C. Dickinson are aspirants for his place. Dickinson is the proprietor of the Republican paper at Newark. There are rumors that other Postmasters in the district are also involved in the Ickes conspiracy, and Martin Luther will likewise claim their heads as a forfeit for their treason.

Down in the Fifteenth district, where Roosevelt had 8,000 plurality, Editor David D. Taylor of Cambridge, made it so hot for Beman G. Dawes, the Republican nominee, that he pulled through by less than 400.

In an ordinary campaign David would have shaken Beman out of his hide and nailed it on the barn door. After realizing that he failed in his grand effort to down Dawes, the rugged old fighter gave way to the promptings of the muse, inserting a blurred picture of the successful candidate in his paper he labeled it: "This is it. Underneath he chortled in poetic lines thusly:

If most of you like him,
We have to submit.
But in Guernsey county,
We have not quit.
Fair nominations is the rule
Forever in the Guernsey school.

C. L'H. LONG

Practically Certain To Be Deputy Auditor—Dr. Wright In Office Next September.

It is practically assured that C. L'H. Long, of The American-Tribune, will be deputy auditor under Dr. Wright, who was elected last Tuesday. This will come as a reward for Mr. Long's persistent ante-election activity in Wright's behalf.

Mr. Long said Saturday morning that he did not wish to affirm the report, but would prefer Dr. Wright to speak for himself. Dr. Wright goes into office next September.

The steamskip Argyl, brought from Honolulu to San Francisco the other day this first shipment of island frogs—100 dozen. The demand of San Francisco goes for frog legs has exhausted the local supply.

Alligator bones are wanted in Venezuela, where those animals are said to exist in good numbers. The hunting is good sport, the skins are valuable, and the oil, which is used for medicinal purposes, also fetches a good price.

It is benevolently suggested by the Car that the trouble caused by boys who climb upon a scating accumulation of slow-moving motor cars in crowded thoroughfares might be effectively removed by a high tension wire controlled by the driver.

You know how rushed we are in framing just before Christmas, so don't wait, but bring that picture now to Norton's Book Store and get it framed.

Looking Toward Peace.

There are at present some indications that a way may eventually be found to a settlement of the far eastern war without its being fought to a finish. Japan is said to have unofficially made representations to Russia indicating a willingness to open negotiations for a cessation of hostilities. These, however, were not received with favor by the Russian government. Now it is asserted, that Japan is willing that peace shall be brought about through the friendly intervention of the United States, Great Britain and France, or any two of these nations. The speech of Lord Lansdowne on Wednesday, in which he made a strong plea for a settlement of the war by arbitration, is said to have been inspired by a knowledge of the desire of the Japanese government. Force was added to his plea by the fact that he had just conducted the negotiations which resulted in Great Britain avoiding hostilities with Russia over the North sea affair by resorting to arbitration.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister to Great Britain, speaks for peace, and says that if President Roosevelt would lead in proposing a settlement of the war it would have a powerful effect. Lord Lansdowne also invoked the aid of our chief executive. Russia has, however, not yet intimated any desire for outside intervention, and until she does neutral governments can do no more than make it known that they would be glad to be of service in bringing about an accommodation. Russia may before long find reason to relax her attitude in this matter.

The fall of Port Arthur or defeat of Kuropatkin's army might convince even the most ardent advocates of war in Russia of the foolishness of continuing the conflict. It is a pity, however, that peace negotiations cannot be initiated before another great battle is fought between the armies of Oyama and Kuropatkin. The war thus far has been indecisive, and both nations could treat now with better grace and upon more satisfactory terms to each than later on, when the balance may have inclined strongly to one side or the other.

TAGGART LAUNCHES A BOOM FOR FOLK

Says Governor-Elect of Missouri Would Make Strong Fight—No Reorganization Plans.

New York, Nov. 12.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic National committee, said that the Democratic party was right and would not be reorganized. And almost in the same breath Mr. Taggart launched the presidential boom of Governor-elect John Wingate Folk, of Missouri, who he said, would make a whirlwind campaign for the presidency. He declared that Folk was the new Moses who would lead the Democratic party out of the wilderness.

Mr. Taggart appeared to be somewhat nettled by reports that he had returned from Indiana a Bryan man.

"I came back as I went away—a Democrat," he said, warmly.

Mr. Taggart has been giving thought to the vote of last Tuesday, and he was ready today with an explanation of it.

"No man, no policy, and no platform could have stopped that cyclone," he said, with his habitual cheerful smile. "There's no accounting for cyclones. Neither party, Republican nor Democratic, had a line on it. It was a surprise to both."

Fast Train Ditched.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 12.—The Southern railway's fast train No. 14, from Brunswick and Jacksonville, was ditched three miles below Cochran, Ga. Seven coaches were overturned and 18 persons were injured in the wreck, though none seriously. The accident was caused by a misplaced rail, the spikes of which were either broken or had been removed. To the left of the track was a 40-foot embankment, and had the train gone down that side it is probable a great loss of life would have occurred.

Warned to Stay Away.

Fall River, Mass., Nov. 12.—The labor secretaries, acting under the instructions of the textile council, issued a signed appeal to the cotton mill strikers bearing on the proposed attempt of the manufacturers to reopen the mills Monday. The appeal advises the operatives to remain away from the mills and show by their conduct that they are determined not to return to work until an honorable settlement is effected.

Attempt at Train Wrecking.

Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—An attempt was made to wreck the northbound Cape May mail and express train on the West Jersey and Seashore railroad near Woodbury, N. J. A railroad tie was stood up on one end in the middle of the tracks and was braced so that it could not fall. The train was running at such a high speed that the tie was hurled from the track without any damage being done to the train. The train crew saw a man disappear in the darkness just as the train crashed into the obstruction. A pay train of the division had preceded the express but 10 minutes.

Tobacco Planters Organize.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 12.—With delegates in attendance from many of the southern tobacco belts, the planters organized what will be known as the American Tobacco Growers' association. The organization is for the purpose of endeavoring to control the price of loose tobacco. The officers are: President, E. L. Davenport, Cincin. Ky.; Secretary, C. H. Taylor, Bedford county, Va.; executive committee, H. B. Sherman, Indianapolis, Ind.; W. D. Price, Charlotte county, Va.; and L. N. Robertson, Owensboro, Ky.

To Revise Philippine Tariff.

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Roosevelt will recommend to congress that authority be given the Philippine commission to revise the tariff now in force in those islands. This decision was about the only thing accomplished at the cabinet meeting. The matter was brought up by Secretary Taft and his recommendation in the matter was approved.

Mistook Son For Deer.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 12.—Albert Hanson, a settler living 20 miles from Cohasset, while out hunting deer, shot and instantly killed his son, whom he mistook for a deer. He immediately proceeded to Cohasset, where he gave himself up and subsequently attempted to commit suicide.

BIG FIGHT COMING

Within the Ranks of the Ohio Republicans

Gov. Herrick is Defiant at Foraker and His Followers and Will Demand a Second Term, Despite the Strong Factional Opposition in the Party—Foraker Will Control Federal Patronage.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—In view of Tuesday's election the Republican party in Ohio feels in such fine condition as to warrant it in conducting a final scrap within its own ranks. The history of the near future will show that this feeling is deep-seated and enthusiastic. No Jap has ever tackled the Muscovite with more joy and thanksgiving than will be expressed by Buckeye Republicans when they fly at the throats of one another during the time which must intervene between the present and the state election of 1905.

In this connection it may be said that the presidential election is no index to the affair that will be pulled off in this state one year from the present. State issues are not national issues, nor do material conditions pertaining to the nation at large have the same effect locally that they have nationally. Without pausing to discuss the causes which led to the recent overwhelming Republican victory in the state and nation, it is a safe assertion that they will not apply to the next state election. Nobody realizes this fact better than the Republican leaders themselves. It is admitted in advance by such wise political scouts as Chairman Lick, Secretary John R. Malloy, and some other well known Republican authorities more intimately connected with the state administration, than either of the gentlemen named.

The single prominent Republican who seems to possess his soul in patience and self-confidence, with no alarm over the future, is Governor Herrick. From a distance the chief executive appears like a becalmed fishing smack in the presence of an impending cyclone. His sails are trimmed, but he doesn't know which breeze will favor him. He is safe for the present, but he is in deep water and the clouds are hovering ominously overhead. On shore numerous spectators of his dilemma are calling to him to look out for impending disaster, but there is nothing to show whence it may come.

The manner in which the governor broke into the returns of the recent election with congratulations to Roosevelt, Fairbanks, Cox and everybody but Foraker, is a clear indication of a double purpose. He not only proposes to keep himself in the public view as much as possible but he is anxious to identify himself in some way with the triumphant Roosevelt following, while holding aloof from Foraker, who will be the president's real representative in Ohio. It is hardly possible that the Dick-Herrick faction expects to get any federal patronage from the present occupant of the White House. It is conceded that Foraker will have the say in this regard and there is no doubt that he will employ the advantage thus obtained to strengthen his personal machine and put both Dick and Herrick out of business. Nevertheless, Governor nor Herrick, by appearing to be enthusiastic for Roosevelt, retains a certain prestige with that element of the party, while his own followers understand perfectly well that he is or no more consequence to the prominent faction than a baystack in a cyclone.

Herrick is determined to be a candidate for a second term, and a very large and important element of the Republican party is determined that he shall not be. He will set no encouragement from Washington and in this respect is at a great disadvantage compared with some other Republican gubernatorial aspirants in Ohio who have been successful in their ambitions in recent years. The tremendous Republican success at the late election is in fact a discouragement to Herrick's ambition and an impediment in the way of carrying the state for another Republican legislature. The Republican victory in the nation is so emphatic that no triumph in Ohio can add to it a year hence. Party loyalty will not then appeal to the rank and file of the Republican party. It will then be absurd to urge the election of a Republican legislature or governor on the ground that either might contribute to the generally roseate hue of the administration horizon. Governor Herrick will have to go it alone from this time on. It is impossible to imagine any contingency calculated to throw him any strength additional to that which he now possesses.

The latter is not enough to boast about. Indeed, the distinguishing thing about the Herrick candidacy is the many-sided opposition to it rather than the elements favoring it, chief among which it is the army of state officeholders. It was utterly impossible to keep state issues prominently before the people of Ohio during the late campaign. The people necessarily lost sight of the record of the present state administration and of the past two legislatures. They accepted Roosevelt on account of abundant crops and other natural conditions for which his party was in no wise responsible, but this very fact made it impossible for them to go to the bottom of purely state affairs. This opportunity will come next year. Governor Herrick will have spirited opposition for the nomination and it is not unlikely that Lieutenant Governor Warren C. Harding may be the beneficiary of that opposition. Some strong man at any rate will be selected by the Foraker crowd to relegate Herrick to the rear. If nominated, this opposition to the governor among Republicans will continue and be carried to the polls. A Democratic legislature is a strong probability as the result of the iniquities of the Seventy-sixth General Assembly; so that the prospect in this state is distinctly favorable to a new Democratic dispensation in both executive and legislative branches of the government within the next twelve months.

PRETTY GIRL

Was the Double of Nine Other Maidens According to Many Mistaken Identifications.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 12.—The coroner of Allegheny county is at his wit's end. One week ago a pretty young woman jumped into the Allegheny river and drowned. Her body was recovered the next day, and since that time it has been identified nine times positively by weeping friends of some one missing, but on every occasion the one supposed to be dead has come to hand in person and proved that she was not in the morgue.

Yesterday a Traldock woman identified the body as that of Rosie Washburne, of Bellefonte, Pa., and told a pitiful story of how Rosie had been driven to suicide by unrequited love.

Two hours later Rosie wired from Bellefonte that she wasn't dead. Within the hour following Mrs. Homer Bartlett of Clarksburg, W. Va., identified the body as that of her niece Virginia McIntyre. As the Clarksburg woman was giving proof of identity Virginia walked into the morgue in person to see the body, whereupon Mrs. Bartlett fell in a faint. The body is yet unidentified.

MARKS EXPLORER'S GRAVE.

Large Monolith Tells Where Henry M. Stanley Lies.

That rugged figure in recent history for whom darkest Africa held no terrors, the late Sir Henry M. Stanley, lies buried in Pirbright churchyard, England, and at the head of his grave stands a large monolith which marks

simply and plainly, but impressively, the resting place of the great explorer.

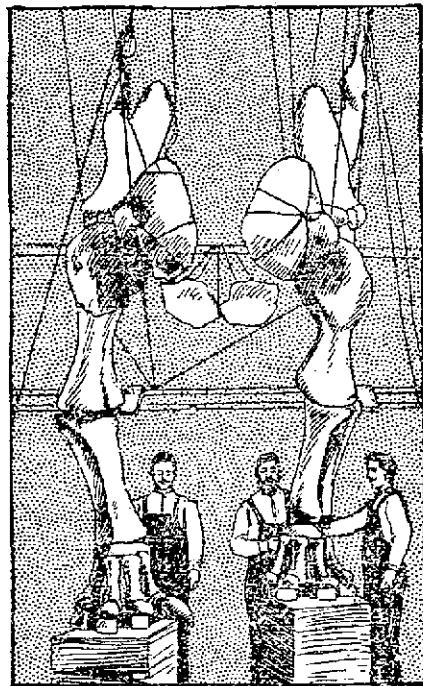

The stone was chosen for the purpose in accordance with the wishes of Lady Stanley, who desired that the monument at the head of her husband's grave should express the simplicity combined with strength which existed in his character. In extreme length the stone is twelve feet, its width is four feet and its thickness from two feet to two feet six inches. It required much searching to find a monolith of the proper character.

A PREHISTORIC MONSTER.

Dinosaur Fifty Feet Long That Died Seven Million Years Ago.

The skeleton of a monster believed to be about 7,000,000 years old is being set up in the American Museum of Natural History, New York. It is the largest and most complete specimen of the herbivorous dinosaur ever discovered and was found about four years ago in central Wyoming in what is called the Bone Cabin quarry.

It is a work of years to exhumate, pack, ship and set up the titanic frame of such a monster. That obtained by the Museum of Natural History consists of about 15,000 pounds of bones. It is about seventy feet long. The ribs are six feet two inches long and the legs from eight to sixteen feet long. It is believed these enormous dinosaurs were able to stand on their hind legs and browse from the branches of high trees.

Save Your Daughter

No. 165 West 88th Street, New York City, N. Y., April 8, 1908.

Wine of Cardui has been a blessing to my home. I have often found that it was a great relief when I was weary or in pain, but I am especially grateful for what it did for our daughter and only child. I noticed that her menses were tardy and she suffered with headaches and giddiness, heaviness in the abdomen and about the loins. This seriously interfered with her studies and she had to discontinue several of them.

A visitor calling on me and discussing the matter suggested that I give her a course of your Wine of Cardui as it had relieved her daughter of a similar trouble. After my daughter had used it for five weeks I found a great improvement in her looks, health and behavior, in fact she was a different girl. The flow became regular and we have not had any difficulty since.

WINE of CARDUI

Here the menstrual function had not been properly started and the unnatural condition was making the young girl an invalid. The headaches and giddiness, indicated something more than a mere temporary ailment. They were symptoms of a functional weakness which would become more and more aggravated as years went by. But Mrs. Thompson was ready to take advice for her daughter's welfare and she gave the little sufferer Wine of Cardui and now she is a well young woman.

If your daughter is sickly and frequently ailing the letter of this good mother contains the best advice you can follow.

Wine of Cardui is the menstrual regulator that cures nine cases out of every ten. Young girls, mothers and aged women find this tonic indispensable. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

QUARANTINED OWING TO THIRTY CASES OF SMALLPOX.

Malady Appears in Mild Form at Kingston, Ross County—Health Board Acts Promptly.

Circleville, O., Nov. 12.—An epidemic of smallpox is rising in the village of Kingston, just over the county line in Ross county, and 28 cases are reported from that time and vicinity. Secretary Probst of the state board of health, has ordered every suspicious case quarantined and also a rigid quarantine of the whole town. The disease is said to be in a mild form, and none of the present cases are considered serious. The disease was brought into the district by a thrasher last summer, who afterwards developed the malady. A toy helper who was with him and later attended school, also developed a mild case, which was not at first believed to be smallpox, and in this manner nearly the whole town has been exposed.

MODERN HOMES

Mr. Weiant Has Just Completed Seven Splendid Residences on Hudson Avenue.

Mr. W. S. Weiant is just completing on Hudson avenue, seven of the most complete homes ever built in the city, one of which he will occupy himself about December 1. The rest will all be completed between now and January 1, 1905. These homes were designed by Carl Howell of Philadelphia, Pa., and superintended by Frank Tomlinson. The exterior is stucco, well-known for its durability, coolness in summer and warmth in winter. The interior is all hardwood floors with oak finish, large old-fashioned brick mantels, latest and best furnaces, baths, etc., with hot and cold water all through. In fact, nothing is left undone to make them complete. Mr. Weiant's gardeners are working on the lawns. Each lot will have its own design of shrubbery to be put in next spring. Some of these homes have been sold.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root, and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Licking County Man, Assistant General Manager of National Cash Register Company.

Mr. Edward Deeds, a Licking county boy who is now about 25 years of age, whose father lives on the Columbus road, near Outville, is rapidly coming to the front, and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his success.

Mr. Deeds was graduated from Denison University at Granville, about eight years ago, and then went to Cornell where he earned a degree in electrical engineering.

He took a position with the Thresher or Electrical company of Dayton, and installed an electrical plant at the Dayton Cash Register factory. He then went to Niagara Falls as an expert for the Natural Food company and became a member of the Board of Public Works, assisting in the work of converting the tremendous water power into electrical force.

While in Dayton his work attracted the attention of the Cash Register company, and he is now employed by them as assistant general manager at a salary said to be $1,000 per month.

At the present time Mr. Deeds is in control of this big plant that employs several thousand people, as President J. H. Patterson, Vice President Robert Patterson and General Manager Hugh Chambers are in Europe.

The plant is regarded as the model factory of the world. It consists of fine buildings well lighted and ventilated. The company also does much for the employes giving prizes for suggestions, as well as furnishing baths, restaurant, sports, games and various contests.

HEALTH

is the

Most Important

In buying food-articles, you must consider several things: Economy, Results, Easy Handling, Reliability; but the most important is Health.

Health means everything. In clothes, furniture, etc., if the buyer gets a poor or imitation article, the only harm is loss of money. In buying food-articles, if imitations are supplied, there is a loss of money, and probably an injury to health—which is beyond price.

The Mission Circle of the Second Presbyterian church held an all-day work meeting on Friday in the church parlors. The purpose was to make clothing for the Indian girl that the Circle is educating at the Good Will Mission, South Dakota. The box will reach the school by Christmas, and will contain in addition to the clothing for the special pupil, many very nice garments, also books and pictures, which have been contributed by not only members of the circle, but by friends of a good home mission cause. Letters received by the circle, on receipt of the box, amply testify to the delight over its contents.

The Investigators club met Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Alice Ashbrook. Quotations were given from Emerson's Compensation and the following program rendered:

Florence, Early Struggles—Mrs. Walter Symons.

WOMEN GOLD SEEKERS.

They Have Been Successful in Pioneer Mining Camps.

For years after the discovery of gold in California there was scarcely a white woman to be found in a mining camp in the whole ore region. But with the first hint of gold finds in Alaska, even in the region of 70 below zero, women donned bloomers and trailed to the north along with strong men.

Arrived at the camps, some opened restaurants or lodging rooms. Others cooked for mining camps. Yet others, delicate women with white hands, became laundresses. These were temporary expedients while they made their pile, which was to come from the gold claims all secured. Some of them went to take care of and keep house for husbands, sons or brothers, meantime investing in those same mysterious "claims." Others, again, were stenographers and typewriters.

Some of the ladies had more or less capital to invest. Where they informed themselves and watched results, not allowing themselves to be swindled, they in many cases acquired fortunes.

Mrs. J. J. Healy, one of the early white women residents of Alaska territory, knew its chances as well as any man prospector, took them and conquered. She and a woman friend invested together, stood by each other and looked out for each other's interests, to the great advantage of both.

Even so inhospitable a coast as that of Cape Nome in the first stampede to its goldfields found woman, resolute, cheerful, dauntless, ready to snatch opportunity and make it her own. Not a few of these women became actual prospectors and learned to be experts in detecting ore indications. Compare all this with the womanless gold camps of California in 1850 and judge how both the times and women have changed.

Those who have seen the wonderful interesting exhibit of Alaska at the St. Louis fair no doubt observed the considerable number of precious nuggets with the names of women attached, notably those of Mrs. King, Mrs. Mary E. Hart and Emma Steiner. The nuggets are from claims owned and operated by these ladies, two of whom, Mrs. Hart and Mrs. King, are in attendance at the St. Louis exposition and look after the Alaskan display there. Miss Steiner exhibits rare specimens of black tin. While prospecting for gold at Nome she and her employees discovered a quantity of the black sand which indicates tin ore. Thereafter, while retaining her gold properties, Emma Steiner became also largely interested in the mining of tin, a rare metal on the western continent.

Mrs. Hart sailed to Cape Nome as a newspaper correspondent, intending also to better her fortunes as she went along. She went from Los Angeles, but had come originally from Virginia, with all the southern woman's vivacity and pluck, saying nothing of the rare social grace that marks the truly sympathetic woman everywhere. She was educated, widely informed and interested as a child in everything on this planet. Such a combination of characteristics is rare.

Arrived in Alaska, Mrs. Hart found something more absorbing even than the aim of bettering her individual fortunes. That was Alaska itself, which to a soul possessed of heart and brain is today the most fascinating region in the western hemisphere. Instead of an ungracious land whence Mary Hart was to wrest gold to last her the rest of her life and get away from as quickly as possible, the lady found a country that, once known and developed, could furnish homes and abundance to millions of people. Its geology and its native races appealed to her as a student of science; its possible agricultural and stock raising development appealed to her as to all who desire the industrial well being of their kind. There were its fisheries to exploit, too, and its vast and varied mineral deposits had not even been scratched over.

MOTHER AND CHILD

Scott's Emulsion is cod liver oil made almost as palatable as milk. It is easy and soothing to the weak stomach; it checks the tendencies of children toward thinness.

Scott's Emulsion gives strength to weak mothers because it creates healthy flesh and new blood.

Nursing mothers will find a special value in Scott's Emulsion because it insures a flow of rich, nourishing milk for the baby. More and better than a medicine; Scott's Emulsion is a food.

Scott's Emulsion is not a mere extract, containing imaginary "active principles" which do not exist, but is full of actual nourishment which sustains vital force and builds up the body tissues more rapidly than any other known remedy.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

OHIO NEWS

DISPATCHES OF INTEREST FROM EVERY SECTION.

Counterfeiter Confesses — Lard Explodes — Ohio Student Honored. College League.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—Alfred E. Lunt of Harvard, president of the American Republican College league, has announced the appointment of Clarence D. Laylin of Ohio State university as president of the Ohio Republican College league. He succeeds as president Roscoe C. McCulloch of Canton, O., who retires from the college work. The following general officers of the state league have also been announced by President Lunt: Vice president, Alex. Dick, Oberlin college; secretary, Winfield Worline, Ohio Wesleyan university; treasurer, William B. Quinn, Kenyon college. The appointment of the executive committee will be deferred until a later date.

Sent to the Pen.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 12.—Charles H. Carleton, alias C. C. Lawrence, and George Harris, alias F. G. Edwards, both of Boston, were sentenced to 4½ years in the state penitentiary and fined $1,500 each in United States district court, after being convicted of using the mails to defraud. Charles G. Carrao, also of Boston, who was associated with Carleton and Harris, was sentenced to serve 18 months in the penitentiary and fined $500. The men opened a broker's office here several months ago and sold out the business to a number of persons.

Made Counterfeit.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 12.—Louis Kozowski, a molder, who came here from Franklin, Pa., three months ago, and who was arrested for having a large amount of counterfeit money in his possession, made a full confession, declaring that he had lost more than $500 playing the various kinds of slot machines and that to get even he had made the counterfeit money himself.

Condemned Man's Motion.

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—A motion for leave to file a petition in error to the circuit court of Hardin county was filed in the supreme court in the case of William Nichols against the state. Nichols was convicted of murder and is now in the annex awaiting execution. His victim was Alpheus Minard. Nichols has suffered several nervous collapses in the past few weeks.

Opposed His Father's Plans.

Canton, O., Nov. 12.—Grover Villard, 19, committed suicide at his home in Mt. Eaton, southwest of here, by shooting himself with a shotgun. He had been low-spirited and acting strangely for several days. His father had rented a building for the purpose of opening a saloon, to which he was bitterly opposed.

Boy's Fatal Fall.

Cleveland, Nov. 12.—Carroll Withowsky, 16, fell from a fourth story window of his mother's home in the Majestic apartment house into a paved court, and received injuries from which he died on the way to a hospital.

Charges Highway Robbery.

Urbana, O., Nov. 12.—Etta Stewart, claiming Cynthia, Ky., as her home, is under arrest here on the charge of holding up H. J. Chamberlain on the street and taking $125 out of his pockets.

Lard Exploded.

Hamilton, O., Nov. 12.—Joseph Gardner, an employee of the desiccating plant, was burned to death in the explosion of a can of lard.

Ohio Student Honored.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 12.—Princeton's senior class elected as Washington birthday orator H. B. Halliday of Ohio.

PERRY COUNTY WEDDINGS.

New Lexington, O., Nov. 12.—The following marriage licenses were issued this week: James M. Plautt and Ida Deot, both of Somerset; Isaac & Ashbaugh, Middletown, and Laura Palmer, New Lexington; James A. Belt, Corning, and Ellen Marshall, Congo; Clark F. Whippis and Belle C. Osenbaugh, both of Hemlock.

ANOTHER BIG WELL.

Mt. Vernon, Nov. 12.—The Central Ohio, a Columbus company, has drilled in a large gas well on the Baxter tract south of town. It will do better than five million cubic feet per day.

SUES FOR DAMAGES.

Mt. Vernon, Nov. 12.—Alva Smith has sued the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus railroad company for $2000 damages. He claims that he was ejected from a passenger train at Galena without cause and after he had paid his fare from Columbus to Mt. Vernon.

WIDOW BURNED TO DEATH.

New Philadelphia, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Lydia Miller, aged 75, a widow, while descending the stairs at her home, carrying a lighted lamp, fell and her clothing took fire. She was so badly burned that she only lived a few hours.

IN HIS BARN

Joseph Simmons, Prominent Resident of Otsego, Was Found Dead on Friday Afternoon.

Zanesville, Nov. 12.—Cold in death from an attack of heart disease, Joseph C. Simmons, aged 50 years, a prominent resident of Otsego, was found in his barn yesterday afternoon by his wife. A physician who was summoned hastily, said Mr. Simmons had been dead about two hours when the corpse was discovered.

About 11 o'clock Mr. Simmons went to the barn to secure some potatoes for the noon meal. His wife, who was alone at the house, did not become worried over his continued absence until about 1 o'clock. She thought he might have found some work that was detaining him. After she became alarmed she visited the barn to find his dead body.

Friday morning Mr. Simmons appeared to be in usual health. During the past summer, though, he had suffered from several heart attacks.

A wife, two daughters and four sons survive. Mr. Simmons was a prominent member of the Otsego Lodge of Maccabees, and was the first one of that organization to be called by death. The Maccabees will have charge of the funeral services.

Howard Shier of Zanesville, is a brother-in-law of the deceased.

FROM WAGON

Mr. Anderson Fell Sustaining Painful and Serious Injury to One of His Eyes.

Mr. S. Anderson, a well known citizen who lives a short distance south of Clitham, was the victim of a painful accident on Friday. He was engaged with several others, in unloading corn from a wagon, when a board that he took hold of broke, letting him fall violently forward on his face. He fell with his face on a wooden stake that projected upward from the wagon bed, which penetrated the corner of his eye. The wound bled profusely and it was at first feared that the sight was destroyed. Mr. Anderson suffered greatly from the injury, and his face is badly swollen and discolored, but it is thought that no serious results will follow.

NOTICE—All water rents were due and payable October 1. All persons owing water bills are requested to call and settle without further delay.

Life's bric-a-brac makes its biggest burden.

A number of persons in good positions in Buda-Pesth have within the last few days received threatening letters bearing the signature, "The Hungarian Black Hand." The sum of $125 is always demanded, and many have paid rather than appeal to the police and take the risk of assassination.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucken's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at Hall's Drug Store.

STRICKEN

WITH PARALYSIS IS WM. J. SHIELDS, JR.

Young Real Estate Broker in a Serious Condition at His Home in This City.

Mr. William J. Shields, Jr., the well-known real estate broker of this city, is lying in a very serious condition at his home, 298 South Fifth street, as a result of a stroke of paralysis sustained on Thursday evening. On Wednesday afternoon following the election Mr. Shields was in Granville on business, and while there experienced a slight stroke of paralysis, and fell to the pavement. He, however, failed to realize the seriousness of his condition, as he apparently quickly recovered and felt no ill effects. On Thursday night, however, while at his home, he sustained the second stroke which affected the entire right side of his body from his head to his feet. Dr. Charles H. Stimson was called and did all he could for him. He is reported to be somewhat improved, although he is still in a very serious condition.

MONUMENT CONTRACT AWARDED AT SOMERSET.

Memorial Will be a $10,000 Bronze Equestrian Statue—to be Finished by Spring of 1906.

Somerset, O., Nov. 12.—At a meeting of the Phil. Sheridan monument commission yesterday afternoon, the contract for the erection of a statue, in memory of the gallant hero of Winchester, who was a native of this town, was awarded to the Harrison Granite Co., of New York, through O. N. Dennison, the local representative of that firm. The statue is to be a bronze equestrian one, and is to cost $10,000. This is the full size of the appropriation made by the last legislature for this monument. The work is to be completed by the spring of 1906.

Thomas Binckley, of New Lexington, W. H. Walker of Somerset, and Father L. J. Kennedy of Somerset, are the members of the Sheridan commission.

It cost $1.25 to telephone from Berlin to Paris. It would cost nearly $2 to use the wire for a few minutes between Berlin and St. Petersburg, and this is given as the reason why the line projected five years ago was never built.

The Prosperous Merchant

is not prosperous through luck and chance. Shrewdness is the father of success.

Careful, economic methods are essential to commercial prosperity—especially in these days of close competition. And the merchant who slights any detail of his business is surely going to see the effects of his negligence immediately.

A large number of shrewd, successful business men are among our patrons—so large a number that it proves pretty conclusively that the treatment they receive at our hands is conducive to satisfaction. Promptness, accuracy and courteous in all our dealings—these are three of the qualities that render our institution the favorite with busy business men.

No delays, no trouble of any kind. Just the smooth-running machinery of a perfect banking system, operated by experienced bankers with unsurpassed facilities.

If we are not your bankers it's no fault of ours, but rather a misfortune you can easily remedy.

Talk it over with us. Believe us, it's to your advantage.
